

LOCAL AFFAIRS

A new railroad schedule is to go into effect next Sunday, but just what it will be has not yet been given out.

Miss Essie Maltba, who has been in school at Johnson City, Tenn., returned home last week for her summer vacation.

Miss Sallie Dougherty, of Russellville, Tenn., is a visitor at the home of her cousin, Mrs. R. M. Green, in Boone.

Mr. Harmon, who is doing automobile repair work in Boone, has moved his family into the W. W. Mast cottage near the central phone office.

Misses Myrtle Norris and Annie Dougherty and Hubert Coffey, were baptized in New River last Sunday afternoon, near the residence of Mr. J. W. Farthing.

Mr. Bob Martin, agent for the Jefferson Standard Insurance Co., called yesterday and left copy for a big ad that will appear next week.

Mrs. Dr. Walker and children, of Waterbury, Conn., have taken board at the beautiful suburban home of Mr. B. J. Council, for the summer.

A force of carpenters are at work on the depot and if the weather conditions continue fine, it will be completed within the next few days.

Mrs. W. L. Scott, of Jefferson, with her two little children, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stanbury in East Boone, for a few days visit.

Farmers are now busy with their crops as the weather for the past two weeks has been ideal for it. The young crops were probably never more promising at this season of the year.

Robert L. Honeycutt is opening up a general livery business at the Critcher stables. Bob did his bit, and did it well, "over there," and is entitled to the success he is sure to have in his new business venture.

We are requested to announce that there will be an ice cream supper given at Blowing Rock next Saturday afternoon, to which the public is cordially invited to help in a worthy cause.

Judge Council of Hickory with his son, Mr. Wm. Council, his wife and baby boy, and Steadman, one of the younger sons of the Judge, has been visiting at the home of his kinsman, Mr. J. F. Hardin, since Saturday.

Miss Edna Holsclaw, of Roseland, Florida, who was called home from Boone last week on account of the serious illness of her sister, writes that she is improving, in fact, is very much better.

Rev. H. H. Cassady, Presbyterian minister from Banner Elk, will preach in the Methodist church in Boone at 3 o'clock next Sunday evening. The public generally is invited to attend the services.

A little ten-months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Reid, of the Cone Estate, near Blowing Rock, died last Saturday and the little body was laid to rest in the church yard at Piney Monday, the Rev. H. L. Powell conducting the funeral services.

A stranger within our gates remarked yesterday, after eulogizing Boone and prophesying good for her in the future, wound up with the remark: "I have only one objection to the town and that is, the sanitary conditions are not what they should be. Before you make street or other improvements, put in water works."

TRESPASS NOTICE.

All persons are hereby forbidden to trespass in any way upon the lands of the undersigned.

R. B. SOUTH.

Barber A. L. Payne has moved his shop, temporarily, into the room occupied by the Red Cross for the past two years, his shop in the brick row having been torn out by Mr. Walter Horton, who is preparing to erect a handsome new home for the famous Nasu car for which he is agent.

Miss Ella Hardin, stenographer to a law firm in Wilmington, N. C. has been at the home of her mother, Mrs. Chany Hardin, on Route 1, for the past two weeks enjoying a well-earned rest. She has been doing stenographic work in Hamlett and Wilmington for the past three years.

The crowd of summer tourists at Blowing Rock is possibly larger than it has ever been in the history of that famous resort, so early in the season, and we are told that applications are far in excess of the room at the various hotels and boarding houses in that town.

County Supt. Smith Hagaman, was in town Tuesday and said they were progressing nicely with the new road out of Beaver Dam that will tap the highway near the Cove Creek cheese factory. He thinks they will complete at least half the road up the mountain on the Beaver Dam side by Saturday night.

Married last Saturday night at Granite Falls, Mr. Linney Maltba, of Poplar Grove, this county, to Miss Ethel Spencer, a winsome young lady of that town. The bridal party, arrived here Sunday evening, and will make their home at or near where the groom was born and reared. The soldier boy and his bonny bride have our best wishes for a long and prosperous journey on the sea of time.

It seems that the ladies composing the committees in the various townships of the county thoroughly understand their duties pertaining to the 4th of July celebration. It seems that a township meeting would be advisable, but this, of course is a matter optional with the ladies. A well filled basket of the best food procurable is what is expected of each family, and when this is done, with what finance we need collected, the success of the big celebration is assured. Other details are being worked out by the general and local committees.

Mr. Job Cook, of Lenoir, who will be manager of the Boldin & Turner wholesale grocery business to be opened in Boone just as soon as a building can be erected, has rented the Calvin J. Cottrell property near the Baptist church, and, with his family, moved in last week. Mr. Cook has been with the Co. in Lenoir for a number of years, and is said to be a man of fine business qualifications. Glad to have them with us, as well as the big business Mr. Cook will have under his control.

With the wires of our local telegraph lying in a tangled mass along main street, and the equipments for electric street lights, that have stood unused for many moons for reasons unknown to the general public, the little town presents a rather delapidated and non-progressive appearance. If we can get a second, we move that our town daddies make some kind of a deal with the New River Light & Power Co., for lights at some cost, and then try to prevail upon the owner of the Watauga telephone system to repair at as early a date as possible the damage wrought on his property by the good roads machinery as it was grading the highway thru the village. Both are absolute necessities, and could easily be put in commission again, and at little expense to the owners or to the town.

In our last issue we failed to note the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ellis, after spending a few weeks in Boone, have returned to their former home in Knoxville, Tenn. Mr. Ellis saw the horrors of the world war: is a very interesting talker and his short stay in town was much enjoyed by our people.

Mr. W. E. Shipley returned from Charlotte Tuesday, and ordered some changes made on the Watauga Garage, now being erected in Boone, it being built exactly after the Ford specifications, the slight changes having been adopted by the Ford architects after this structure was begun.

Misses Edna and Hattie Bingham, of Amantha, with Mrs. Parlier, a relative from Los Angeles, California, were pleasant callers at our office Monday. The young ladies are much interested in the 4th of July celebration to be held in Boone. They called to say that, in their opinion, the ladies of the county should provide cake to be served with the ice cream to the soldier boys after the parades in the afternoon. A good suggestion this, and one that, we feel sure, will meet with the hearty approval of those concerned.
